

Transport Information Guide Queens Wharf

85-89 Quay Street, Auckland, 1010

Public Transport

How do I get to Queens Wharf from Central Auckland?

Queens Wharf is located at the bottom of Queen Street in Auckland's central city. Queens Wharf is conveniently located only a 2 minute walk from minutes Britomart Transport Centre and adjacent to the Auckland Ferry Terminal.

For special early train services to Britomart Train Station for the Athletics Road events and the Cycling Time Trial and Criterium, please see the Auckland Transport website.

How do I plan my journey from outside Central Auckland?

If your journey does not begin in Central Auckland please refer to the AT Journey Planner at www.at.govt.nz/journey-planner

Travelling with sports equipment

Participants who are arriving to Central Auckland with their bike are encouraged to walk or ride their bikes to Queens Wharf as bicycles are not permitted on the Auckland Transport bus network. Participants staying on the North Shore of Auckland will be required to organise their own transport as bikes are not permitted on the Northern Express (NEX) Buses.

Other sports equipment can be taken on public transport. However, if a bus is full drivers have the right to ask you to wait for the next bus if they you and your equipment cannot be safely transported on the bus.

Parking

There are several multi-level paid parking options in the surrounding area with the closest being Britomart or Downtown Carpark. For additional Central Auckland parking locations please visit the Auckland Transport Parking Website.

Important Information

Please allow plenty of time to get to your venue if you are using public transport or driving. Failing to turn up to your match/ event on time could result in disqualification.

If you are using an AT HOP card please remember to tag on and tag off on buses and trains. Failure to tag off will result in a penalty fare.

For any queries on transport please refer to the Transport FAQ's or visit the Transport Information Desk at the Entertainment Hub at Queens Wharf from 16 – 30 April.
